No final exams may be given prior to the scheduled exam day. Missed exams must be taken and Z codes must be converted to the appropriate letter grade no later than four weeks following the administration of the exam, except under unusual circumstances approved by the principal or his/her designee. In any case, the exams must be taken and processed in time to be used in determining academic eligibility for fall extra-curricular activities.

Students will need to call the front office to make an appointment for the administration of their missed final exams.
