

Marylanders Plant Trees 2010 School Challenge

Now that the snow is melting and thoughts turn to spring and all things green, consider helping MRHS attain Green School status by participating in the Marylanders Plant Trees 2010 School Challenge.

The Marylanders Plant Trees encourages citizens to plant and register 50,000 trees each year to help improve air, water and quality of life in Maryland. To help meet that goal the state is announcing a School Challenge for all Maryland elementary, middle and high schools. It is simple!
